

Chesterfield Borough Council Local Development Framework

Supplementary Planning Document Advertisements Design Guide 11th May 2007 Adoption Statement

This statement has been prepared in accordance with Regulation 16 (2) of the Town and Country Planning (Local Development) (England) Regulations 2004 and is published in accordance with Regulation 19 (a) of the same.

The Advertisements Design Guide has now been adopted by the Borough Council as a Supplementary Planning Document. It was adopted by the Borough Council's Lead Member for Planning and Asset Management on 30th April 2007.

The main aims of the guide are; to inform and assist potential applicants in understanding what type advertisements are considered acceptable by the Local Planning Authority throughout the Borough and to ensure that new advertisements are sympathetic to the character of the area, amenity of the locality and public safety, as amended by the Town and Country Planning (Control of Advertisements) (England) Regulations 2007.

Any person aggrieved by the Supplementary Planning Document may apply to the High Court for permission to apply for judicial review of the decision to adopt the Supplementary Planning Document.

Any such application for leave must be made promptly and in any event not later than 3 months after the date on which the Supplementary Planning Document was adopted.
